Dear Parents and Guardians,

"We did not act in a disorderly way among you." (Thessalonians 3:7-12)

Reflection Taken from The Word Among Us:

The Thessalonian church was in a state of confusion and losing their peace and joy...To head off this confusion, Paul urged the people to focus on living simply. He wanted them to be content with what they had, to work diligently, and to remain faithful to the Lord. Everything else would work itself out in God's good timing. Paul's message of simplicity is important for us as well. We can easily become preoccupied with everything that is going on in the world. However, this only distracts us and makes it harder for us to hear the Lord and feel his presence.

"The Lord said: I think thoughts of peace and not of affliction." (Jeremiah 29:11)
